

GO AND DO

Luke 10:37

Underground Observations

The believers in the underground churches were taught about the word "blossom." Their thoughts:

"There is no hope of fruit in the winter. Yeshua's birth is in the winter and brings the promise of fruit."

"Flowers blossom and stand against bad weather. Yeshua will help us stand against our government."

Underground House Calls

We have exciting episodes that feature testimonies of underground believers:

Ladan, Ebrahim, Anahita

The podcast can be found on Apple Podcasts, search for "Underground House Calls." It can also be found online at: <https://faithisidentity.com/go-and-do/>

Now Ruz summary

Thank you, everyone, for the way you're supporting the 2022 Now Ruz boxes! For our two churches in Iran, this is their second Now Ruz as believers and, therefore, their second Now Ruz distributing gift boxes to others in need. We are happy to tell you that our two groups are giving away 53 boxes this year—more than last year! That's what happens when we tell people the good news of Jesus and then they tell other people. In fact, the boxes are being distributed this very week as we all sit here reading this newsletter.

This means there are 53 families who will be able to eat well for several days during the Now Ruz celebration, and most importantly, they will hear that God hasn't forgotten them. Please pray for the ones whose hearts are being prepared by the Holy Spirit to hear more truth and also for the leaders; not only are they busy building relationships and sharing the gospel, but also they are teaching the newest believers how to make disciples. The team in Iran is growing every month—it's exciting. A year from now, our groups will look very different from today.

Testimony from the underground church

Hí. My name is Anahíta.

I was a bad woman; I knew it. And I knew almost all the bad men town.

I had to.

I hated all the men in the entire world.

One night, a man came to me. I talked to him, and time passed by. And I thought that night would also pass like other nights, until he said, "Quit this job; I know that you don't like this disgusting job."

That was the first time that someone cared for me. I couldn't control myself, and started crying.

The man said, "God loves you; my powerful God loves the sinners".

That was very strange. I had several questions in my mind.

He talked about love, and staying away from sin, and getting close to God.

That night, I talked to the real God for the first time.

I was calm and did not have any sadness in my heart.

I quit that ugly job, and by trusting the powerful God, now I have the best life with the God of broken hearts.

I am grateful to you, my powerful God.

Please feel free to let others know they have an opportunity to join us as we Boro va anjam bede.
